

WHEREAS, Jerry Collins has consistently and effusively granted his time and efforts to aid the young, the handicapped and those in need; and,

WHEREAS, his worthwhile projects have benefited thousands throughout the State of South Dakota and our sister states; and

WHEREAS, Jerry Collins has, through the contribution of gate receipts from races at his horse and dog tracks, contributed to the Crippled Children's Hospital and School, the Sioux Land Rehabilitation Center, the Board of Regents scholarship program, and the Elks charity program, as well as other deserving projects; and

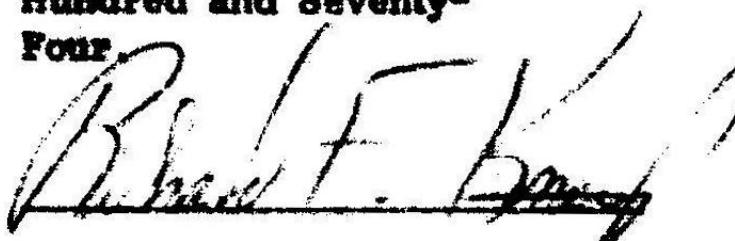

WHEREAS, Jerry Collins deserves thanks a millionfold for his generosity to others:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, August 2, 1974, as a day of special recognition and celebration in South Dakota for and I join the many friends of Jerry Collins in honoring him for his years of service and assistance to persons of all ages.

JERRY COLLINS

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 26th day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Four

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
